

STATEMENT OF SPECIAL DISTRICT JUDGE JARED SIGLER

1. I, Jared Sigler, am a Special Judge for Washington County, State of Oklahoma.
2. I preside over the Washington county costs docket. The purpose of the costs docket is to hold costs review hearings. Defendants who have agreed to make installment payments are ordered to appear for costs review hearings. See Court of Criminal Appeals Rule 8.3 regarding installment payment appearances. Defendants may avoid costs review hearings if they are making regular payments and if they call the court clerk's office prior to the hearing pursuant to the "Washington County District Court Procedure Re: Fines and Costs Review Hearings," which is attached to this Statement as Ex. D.
3. I also preside over the Washington County Rule 8 docket. The purpose of the Rule 8 docket is to provide defendants an opportunity to request changes to their installment plans, to request suspension of their payment obligations for a period of time, or to request permanent relief from their fines, fees, and costs obligation.
4. Some individuals appear at the costs docket in order to advise that they have made their payments. At that time, they are provided an "order-back slip" advising them of the date and time of their next costs review hearing. Some individuals appear at the costs docket to when they have not made a payment. When that occurs, I give them a new order-back date for a future costs review hearing. Some individuals request a change to their installment payment plan. In those cases, I either alter their payment plan by lowering the amount of their installment payments, suspend their payments for a period of time, permanently eliminate their payment obligation, or ask that they appear on the Rule 8 docket in order to provide any testimony or other evidence they may wish to present in support of their request. At the costs docket, I do not have a list of questions that I ask. I usually engage in a conversation with the individual to determine their circumstances and their requests, if any. If an individual requests a change to their payment obligation, I either grant the request or set a hearing for the matter to be heard at the Rule 8 docket. No request is denied without providing the individual an opportunity to be fully heard during the Rule 8 docket. This is done out of concerns about the length of the costs docket and the privacy of the defendants. The Rule 8 docket is much smaller than the costs docket. There is more time at the Rule 8 docket to discuss the details of an individual's situation. In addition, many Defendants are uncomfortable explaining their medical and/or financial hardships at in courtroom full of people. They often appear more comfortable discussing these matters during the much smaller Rule 8 docket.
5. During the Rule 8 docket, I ask each individual if they would like to have a court reporter or if they would like to waive their right to a court reporter. The hearing does not proceed unless a court reporter is present or unless the individual waives their right to a court reporter. During the Rule 8 docket, each individual is given an opportunity to discuss their current health and financial situation. I do not have a list of questions that I ask each individual. Rather, I engage in a conversation with each individual to determine their financial and/or health status. Many times, I am already aware of the individual's circumstances because I have seen them in Bartlesville outside of court or because I have seen them previously at costs dockets or elsewhere. I do not deny requests for relief without inquiring into each individual's health and financial situation. I do not always ask detailed questions about every aspect of an individual's health or financial situation if it becomes clear to me that I am going to grant their request for relief. For example, if I have determined to grant their request based primarily on health difficulties, I have no need to ask detailed questions about every aspect of their financial situation. If I have determined to grant their request based primarily on their financial hardships, I have no need to ask detailed questions about their medical and/or health circumstances. Nevertheless, each individual has a full opportunity to provide me with any information they wish to present. I consider all information provided to me in reaching a decision. Anyone appearing before me has a full and fair opportunity to present their case. Although I have not reviewed every record, I cannot recall declining fines, costs, and fees relief to any individual appearing at the Rule 8 docket who has requested such relief since January of 2019. Anyone who requests fines, fees, and costs relief from me now or in the future will receive a full and fair opportunity to present their evidence and receive a fair decision.

EXHIBIT

6. The forms listed below are now used by the Washington County District Court with respect to matters relating to or touching on fines, costs, and fees and are attached to this statement:
  - (a) Plea of Guilty Summary of Facts (Ex. A);
  - (b) Fines Assessed in Court ("Yellow Form") (Ex. B);

7. As of this date, Sharonica Carter owes $5,216.06 in fines, fees and costs pursuant to her latests balance statement, attached hereto as Exhibit J.
8. Amanda Feenstra has been permanently relieved of her Washington County fines, fees, and costs pursuant to an Order signed by Judge Carl Gibson and filed on December 16, 2020. The Order is attached to this statement at Exhibit K. As Ms. Feenstra has been permanently relieved of her fines, fees, and costs, she has no further obligation to appear before the Washington County District Court in relation to those fines, fees, or costs.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on this 19th day of February, 2021.

ORDER PURSUANT TO TITLE 22 O.S. § 983(a)

Now on this 15th day of December, 2020, this matter comes before the undersigned Judge of the District Court for review. The Court having reviewed the record and the Defendant's payment schedule as shown by the Washington County Court Clerk, and being fully advised in the premises finds as follows:

1. On or about April 29, 2015, the Defendant entered a plea of guilty to the crimes as charged, was convicted and sentenced to serve a term of imprisonment in the Oklahoma Department of Corrections, and was assessed fines, fees, and costs associated therewith.
2. The Defendant was released from the Oklahoma Department of Corrections after having fulfilled her sentence, and thereafter began making payments towards her fines, fees, and costs.
3. Thereafter, the Defendant appeared before Judge Jared Sigler for fines and costs review hearings; for the most part, she remained compliant with her payment plan and orders of the court regarding payment of fines, fees and court costs.
4. On or about January 20, 2020, the Defendant appeared in person before Washington County District Judge Linda S. Thomas<sup>1</sup> for a fines and costs review hearing, at which time the <sup>1</sup> The cases were ultimately assigned to Judge Thomas subsequent to the filing of Washington County District Court Case No. CV-19-12.

Defendant presented evidence to the Court showing she was entitled to $25 as credit for time previously served in the Washington County jail and that she had overpaid her monthly assessment by $25. The Defendant was granted the relief requested and was given credit toward her fines, fees and costs in the amount of $50.

5. The Defendant again appeared before Judge Thomas on May 22, 2020 for a fines and costs review hearing, at which the Defendant requested a suspension of her monthly payments, pursuant to Rule 8.5 of the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals, due to her inability to work pending a scheduled surgery. The Defendant was granted the relief requested, and the matter was set for a six-month review.

6. The Defendant appeared with counsel, Steven Terrill, before Judge Thomas on December 11, 2020 for a Rule 8.5 status review at which time the case was assigned to the undersigned Judge Carl Gibson (see written order filed December 14, 2020).

7. Since her release from the Oklahoma Department of Corrections, the Defendant has fully complied with her rules and conditions of probation and/or supervision.

8. As of the date of this order, the Defendant has made installment payments towards her outstanding fines, court costs, and fees as ordered by the Court on a timely basis for an equivalent of at least twenty-four (24) months following her release from custody.

9. Pursuant to 22 O.S. 983(a), the Court has the authority to waive the rest and remainder of any outstanding fines, court costs, and fees in the above captioned cases.

10. The Defendant herein is entitled to the relief requested.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED by the Court all rest and remaining unpaid fines, fees, and court costs associated with Washington County District Court Case numbers CF-14-465 and CF-14-528, shall be, and hereby are, waived, provided however this order shall not apply to amounts owed by the Defendant for restitution to a victim pursuant to a court order, if any, or to a child support obligation, if any.

CARL GIBSON
DISTRICT JUDGE OF THE COURT
